WILL NOT RESIGN AND NAMES ENVOYS

PEACE NEGOTIATIONS DELAYED
WAITING NAMING AMERICAN REPRESENTATIVES.

CARRANZA DOUBTFUL

Asks for Further Information as to Powers His Representative
Would Have in Negotiations.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Washington, May 4.—The Mexican situation in all its aspects was again before the South American mediators when they resumed their sessions at the Argentine legation today. They planned as the first move of the day to go to the state department for a reply to their request for the appointment of a delegate from the United States, with his name, if the appointment had been determined upon.

Mexico Ready.
General Huerta has informed the mediators that D'Amelio Rabasa, Mexican jurist, and Augustine Garracaindo, under secretary of justice, have been selected as delegates to confer with the mediators and that their names will be submitted tomorrow.

Carranza Questions.
It was learned from an authoritative source that Carranza had sent further telegrams to the mediators inquiring as to their request for the appointment of a Carranza delegate, the exercise of his function and whether this would be limited to the controversy between the United States and Huerta, beyond which Carranza has shown no signs of negotiation.

Huerta Determined.
Huerta repeated his utterance that he will never resign. Meaning the mediators were chiefly concerned in not having any untoward warfare by the advances and skirmishes which might cause complications in the negotiations.

Is Believed.
General Huerta's repeated utterances that he will never resign is now taken seriously in Huerta circles here. He is said to be sincerely desireous of bringing the whole controversy to a speedy conclusion.

Confer With Bryan.
The mediation envoys reached the state department and went into a conference with Secretary Bryan shortly before noon. Secretary Bryan said an announcement would be made later.

No Uniting Forces.
Constitutionalists and Huerta leaders at Manzanilla, Mexico, have been exchanging very bitter letters, according to reports at the navy department from Admiral Howard, who has read several of the letters.

Admiral Howard said all was quiet at Manzanilla, and he made no mention of the reports of the blowing up of the Mexican liner Luella.

Refugees Moved.
El Paso, May 4.—Three thousand members of the Mexican federal army, accompanied by 1,900 women and children, who have been interned at Fort Bliss since they crossed the international border, after suffering defeat by the rebels at Ojinaga, were interned today at Fort Wingate, New Mexico.

Tales of Atrocity.
San Francisco, Cal., May 4.—Among the tales of atrocity told today by the refugees who arrived from the western coast of Mexico yesterday afternoon on the steamer City of Sydney, is that of the crucifixion of the Catholic Bishop of Talpa. According to the account a detachment of General Talpa's soldiers called on the bishop to surrender the securities and other funds of the church, which he refused to do. Thereupon the soldiers nailed him to a cross and left him to die.

Reach New York.
New York, May 4.—The Ward liner Guatemala arrived from Tampico, and Havana, having twenty refugees, eighteen from Tampico and two from Vera Cruz, most of them women and children.

The Guatemalan was at Vera Cruz during the fighting and for a time was in the line of fire while the United States' force was landing. About sixty bullets passed through the shaft house and other structures. None of the ship's company was injured.

Favored Mexico.
Brussels, Belgium, May 4.—Under the auspices of the local Hispano American committee there was a demonstration in this city today in favor of Mexico and against the United States.

Several hundred persons, chiefly from the University of Brussels, Liege and Louvain took part.

The demonstrators marched with flags to the Mexican legation, where speeches on the subject of American aggression in Mexico were made.

day and meet the Montana which is ies of men killed at Vera Cruz. This impossible for President Wilson to sonal representative with a letter from him to welcome the funeral ship.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
New York, May 4.—The police today were asked to recover jewels valued at $10,000 belonging to Mrs. Henry Hutt, former wife of Henry Hutt, the artist, which were taken from her West avenue apartments by burglars last Thursday. The theft was committed while Mrs. Hutt and her son were at dinner. The stolen jewels consisted of a gold watch, jeweled bracelets and numerous rings and pins.

17-YEAR OLD BOY
ON TRIAL FOR MURDER

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Herkimer, N. Y., May 4.—Joan Gianini, 17 years old, today went to trial on a charge of brutally attacking and then murdering Miss Lydia Bescher.

On the morning of March 26, last, searching parties found the body of the pretty Poland school teacher in a clump of bushes just off the roadway near her home. The body was badly mutilated and showed evidence of criminal attack. The police were certain that revenge was the motive.
The afternoon of the finding of the body the Gianini boy was arrested.
He stoutly maintained his innocence.
When strong circumstantial evidence confronted him, however, he calmly admitted the crime. He has never once expressed regret, nor does he appear to be in the least concerned over his position. His lawyers will plead insanity for him.

DEATH RATE SHOWS A SLIGHT INCREASE

Interesting Statistics and Comparisons
Regarding Wisconsin's Mortality Record.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Madison, Wis., May 4.—The death rate in Wisconsin for the past three months is slightly higher than it has been for six preceding years, according to the quarterly mortality statement issued by the state board of health today. During the months of January, February and March, 1914, 8,223 deaths were reported by the various local registrars throughout the state. This corresponds to an annual death rate of 13.36 per thousand estimated population. Comparing this rate with the rate of 12.35 per thousand for 1908, a rate of 12.35 per thousand for 1909, a rate of 12.77 per thousand for 1910, a rate of 12.2 per thousand for 1911, a rate of 12.37 per thousand for 1912, and a rate of 13.27 per thousand for 1913, shows an increase in the rate over previous years.

Considering the deaths reported by age groups there is a decrease of eight in the number of deaths among children under one year of age, an increase of eleven in the age group from four years and a decrease of 173 in the age group of sixty-five years and over as compared with the mortality by age groups for 1913.

The more important causes of death with the number of deaths from each disease is as follows: pulmonary tuberculosis, 543; other tuberculosis, 97; typhoid fever, 34; diphtheria, 31; scarlet fever, 53; measles, 33; whooping cough, 20; pneumonia, 1,190; meningitis, 98; influenza, 39; purpura sep-ticemia, 26; cancer, 476; and violence, 342. Comparing the number of deaths from certain diseases for the months of January, February and March this year with a similar report for 1913 there is a decrease in the number of deaths reported as follows: Other forms of tuberculosis, 24; typhoid fever, 2; whooping cough, 30; meningitis, 23; influenza, 12; and pur-pura, septicaemia, 2. It should be noted in this connection that there is a marked decline in the number of deaths reported from practically all of the dangerous, communicable diseases with the exception of diphtheria.
There is an increase in the number of deaths from the following diseases: Pulmonary tuberculosis, 18; diphtheria, 20; measles, pneumonia, 73; cancer, 43; and violence, 21.

The northern section of the state has a death rate for this period of 8.1 per thousand estimated population, while the rate for the central section is 12.9 and a rate for the southern section of 15.2. This is the highest death rate ever recorded for the southern section of the state since the establishment of the present bureau of vital statistics, providing for the accurate and complete reports of deaths which occur in the state. The state health officer says that this increase is not due to the prevalence of any of the so-called preventable diseases, but results from chronic or long-seated constitutional ailments, which are attributable in large measure to
"deaths from violence."

Deaths From Violence.
Considering the number of deaths from violence the report shows 65 resulted from suicides; 66 from accidental fractures; 43 from accidental burns and scalds; 35 from railroad accidents; 18 from accidental drowning; 13 from accidental suffocation; 12 from accidental gunshot wounds; 12 and 3 from accidental freezing.

There are two deaths from infantile paralysis, five from tetanus and three from smallpox. The deaths from infantile paralysis are distributed by counties as follows: Calumet, 1; and Chippewa, 1.

FEMINIST MOVEMENT
GETS BIG IMPETUS
AT WORLD MEETING

Four Thousand Club Women From Twenty-One Countries Opened Convention in Rome Today.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Rome, May 4.—Over 4,000 women, representing twenty-one of the leading countries of the world participated in the formal opening of the quintennial congress of the International Council of Women. The opening address was made by Countess Isabelle Aberdeen, wife of the lord lieutenant of Ireland, while in the audience was Queen Margherita of Italy, the wives of practically the entire diplomatic corps accredited both to the Quirinal and the Vatican, as well as a goodly portion of all the most conspicuous names figure most conspicuously in the feminist movement of the principal nations of the world.

The congress, which is to last until May 14, is the seventh quintennial meeting held by the council since its organization in 1892. The Rome meeting follows those held at Washington, Chicago, London, Berlin, Geneva and Toronto, and is expected to set the very last word as to what has been accomplished by women up to the present moment as well as to outline her activities for the next five years until another congress is held.

Immediately after the close of the congress of the international council on May 14, an international congress of women will be convened which will continue its sessions in Rome until May 21.

In addition to the 4,000 delegates to the international council, an equally large number of delegates is expected to assemble for the congress, making the latter the largest and most world-wide representative congress from May 14 to 21 will be presided over by the princess Letizia, duchess of Aosta, and cousin of King Victor Emmanuel.

Following the formal address of Lady Aberdeen, disposition was made for the taking of the regular work of the council in sections. The international peace and arbitration was placed in charge of Mrs. May mora Sewall; that of a single woman and the fight against white slave traffic in charge of Mme. Anna Sto. Croix; that of emigration, countess Danielle-Camezini, universal suffrage, Mrs. Anna Shaw. A special section was devoted to the consideration of laws relative to the legal position of women and children.

In addition to the regular work of the council an announcement was made of intended session of various posals made, the international council by the various national federations of women's clubs. Amongst these it was announced was one by the French federation for the organization as a permanent part of the international council of a women's labor commission; by the Danish federation for the creation of a permanent commission against international prostitution; by the German federation for the international federation for the international council to pledge itself to a general world-wide fight against alcoholism.

Announcement was also made that during the congress the council would take definite action of the world of the world of international courts for women and children.

That of asking the governments of the world to pledge themselves to arbitration even when vital interests are at stake.

That of asking the next peace conference at the Hague to formulate international laws for the protection of women and children during wars;
That of establishing and guaranteeing in all countries the civil capacity of women both as to person and her property.

The establishing of equal rights for both father and mother as regards children.

The organization in every country of the world of special courts for children.

The creation of an obligatory pension for wives and children, both legitimate and illegitimate, and the protection of abandoned mothers and children, both legitimate and illegitimate.

The governmental supervision and regulation of all employment agencies for women, the placing of a woman inspector on every transatlantic boat for the surveillance of minors; the suppression of all tolerated disreputable houses;

The organization of governmental bureaus of information in every country on every possible phase of emigration;

The international protection of birds.

In spite of the large amount of work which it was announced the congress would have to do, the delegates were also informed that there would be no lack of entertainment during the congress. This part of the program includes receptions both by Queen Elena and Queen Mother Margherita, audiences with Pope Pius, and visits to the various remains of antiquity in and about Rome.

An invitation was also accepted by the congress from the National Federation of Women's Clubs of Austria to come to Vienna at the close of the congress for a special program of entertainment which has been arranged for.

GEN. DANIEL SICKLES WAR HERO IS DEAD

Last of Corp Commanders of Union Army Expires at His Home in New York.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
New York, May 4.—Gen. Daniel E.
Sickles died at 9:50 last night.

Gen. Sickles was the last of the corp commanders of the Union army to die.

He lost a leg at Gettysburg, and was officially reported as distinguished for bravery both before and after being wounded.

Gen. Sickles was born in New York in 1825.

Victorious general in the battle of Gettysburg, and hero of Fair Oaks, Malvern Hill, Antietam, Fredericksburg and Chancellorsville, few men in public life have had careers as remarkable as Sickles.

Had Varied Career.
In brief, he has been printer, lawyer, legislator, corporation attorney, secretary of legation, state senator, member of congress, colonel of volunteers, colonel of regular army, major general, U. S. A., minister to Spain and to Spain and commander of the Legion of Honor of France.

Of late years' he has been much in public print, owing to sensational charges made concerning the alleged shortage of $25,716 of the funds of the New York Monument association, of which he was treasurer.

Friends Rally to His Aid.
Friends in any number rallied to his assistance to keep the veteran soldier out of prison. Before they had been accomplished his wife from whom he had been estranged for many years, returned to America from her home in Spain, sold her diamonds and jewelry and was prepared to help the general out of his financial difficulties.

A reconciliation was all but effected. His housekeeper, however, overheard a remark in Mrs. Sickles' hearing and the reconciliation understandings were then and there called off. For twenty-seven years Mrs.
Sickles has not been under the same roof with the general until Saturday night, he word was brought to her that he was dying. She was his widow and a Spanish woman of a high degree.

Military Funeral.
While the funeral arrangements for General Daniel E. Sickles, who died last night, had not been completely finished today, it was said the old soldier, the last of the brigade commanders of the civil war, would be buried with military honors. He may be buried in Arlington beside other military dead of the nation.

Duluth, Minn., May 4.—With an array of legal counsel presently the hearing of the trial proceedings covered by conflict by Joseph Shell-wood, who died February 24th, began before Judge Gilpin here today.

The estate is said to be worth four million dollars. Mrs. Martha Shell-wood, the widow, is contesting the will on the grounds that the "annuptial agreement" with her husband is void since it deprives her of her statutory rights in the estate.

Mrs. Ophelia Lighthead, a daughter, who has been filed for probate, the alleges that under the terms of another will executed by her father she is given one-third of the estate.
Richard M. Shellwood and Lillian Marshall, brother and sister of Mrs.
Lighthead, used undue influence on the testator to have him disinherit her, she said.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Denver, May 4.—Mentally and physically exhausted by the horrors of the last two weeks in the strike zone, Governor E. C. Ammons took to his bed last night. He broke down just as he was trying to prepare his message for the special session of the legislature which convenes today to consider legislation with the strike. During a conference with party leaders he was visibly affected and tears streamed from his eyes.

After the conference it was announced early today that the governor would ask both branches of the legislature to meet in joint session and their permission for the issuance of bonds to pay the expenses incurred by the state in maintaining militia in the strike zone. The legislature will also be asked to enact a law providing for arbitration and means of enacting the dictum of the arbitrators in further cases of labor strikes.

OLNEY IS ELECTED
TO SERVE AS HEAD OF RESERVE BOARD

President Appoints Former Secretary of State to Responsible Position
Under New Currency
Law.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Washington, May 4.—President Wilson has selected Richard Olney, former secretary of state, to be governor of the federal reserve board, and Paul Warbough to be a member of the board.

Expected to Accept.
Although President Wilson has officially given word to Mr. Olney of his selection, word of Mr. Olney's acceptance is being awaited today and friends here believe he will not decline. Mr. Olney was offered the place of ambassador to Great Britain by President Wilson early last year, but expressed an unwillingness to leave this country on account of business interests. He is being urged by friends of the president to accept this place, which the president has spoken of as next in importance to a place on the bench of the supreme court of the United States.

Although Mr. Olney is 73 years of age he is active and has had long experience in the business world and finance which the president and his advisors believe would especially adapt him for the head of the reserve board.

Warbough Will Serve.
Mr. Warbough has been connected with Kuhn, Loeb & Company and he has accepted the place as a member of the board. Formal announcement of his selection as well as the other three men on the board besides the governor is expected to be made within two or three days.

Officials at Washington, as well as in banking circles, are awaiting the announcement of the full personnel of the federal reserve board, with increase interest as it will formally set in motion the new currency law which was signed on December 23rd last.

With the selection of twelve regional reserve banks the organization of the board has been the most final step in the operation of the new currency law. The banks are being organized and according to the expression of officials within another month the currency law will be fulfilled. There will be certain transitions which will occupy a greater length of time.

The commissioners' board will consist of seven members at a salary of $12,000 a year each. The secretary, treasurer and controller of the currency are ex-officio members, and five other members are to be appointed by the president.

The law stipulates that the members should be selected with reference to the geographical, commercial and financial divisions of the country.
With Mr. Olney representing New England and Mr. Warbough New York, it was expected that the other members to be selected would represent the south, the middle west and the west.

Olney Surprised.
Boston, Mass., May 4.—Richard Ol-ney smiled when informed today that President Wilson had selected him for the governor of the federal reserve board, but declined to comment on the announcement or indicate whether he would accept.

Mr. Olney is in his seventy-ninth year, and though bright and active, was influenced by his advanced years as well as his business interests to decline the diplomatic office tendered him a year ago.

AN ANNIVERSARY DAY OF BAY VIEW STRIKE

Janesville Guards and Bower City Rifles Started for Milwaukee Twenty-Eight Years Ago.

Today marks the twenty-eighth anniversary of the Bay View labor troubles in Milwaukee when the two companies of Janesville state militia, Co. A, the Janesville Guards, commanded by Capt. M. A. Newman, thirty-nine strong, and Co. B, the Bower City Rifles, commanded by Capt. J. A. Koebelin, forty strong, left for Milwaukee to aid in preserving order. Jeremiah Bush was Governor at that time and C. P. Chapman, assistant general. The Janesville contingent were sent to the Bay View district where the only actual conflict with the strikers took place, and they had a varied experience that many of the members of the two companies, still residents of the city, delight to recall. They were on duty there several days and Company B actually took part in defending the iron works they were quartered at from an attack of the strikers.

Five persons were killed in an encounter between the state militia and strikers who were trying to have an eight-hour day granted them.

The strike, which was under the direction of the Knights of Labor, was participated in by 30,000 in Milwaukee and 20,000 more were thrown out of employment on account of the closing of shops and manufacturing plants all over the city.

The strike began on May 1, the date of the Haymarket bomb explosion in Chicago. The trouble became so severe that Governor Jeremiah Bush was forced to assume control of the situation. He called on the national guard, who with the entire police force of Milwaukee, were on strike duty.

The Illinois Steel company had been closed and four companies of militia were guarding the property. On the morning of May 4, 400 strikers assembled on Mitchell street and marched to the plant. They were commanded to stop and when they refused a volley was fired, killing five and wounding thirteen.

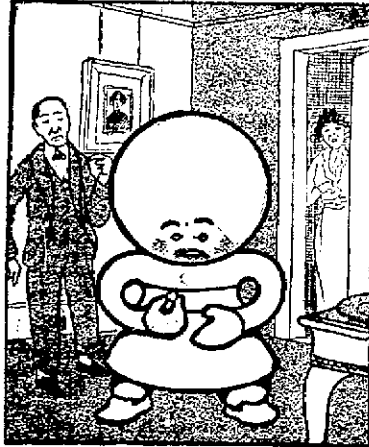

This did not end the labor trouble, and disturbances continued for several weeks.

GOOPS

By GELETT BURGESS

FLORA FINN

A dirty Goop is Flora Finn! She's smooched on mouth and cheek, and chin. You'd think she'd wash her face, but no! She really seems to like it so! She is a Goop, and that is why! She'll have to wash it, by-and-by!

Don't Be A Goop!

Evil In Outbursts of Temper.

When the fearsome creature, or the raging individual, is made to recognize by the painstaking, sympathetic doctor that outbursts of fury no less than succumbing to the tremors of a thunderstorm will work permanent injury to the brain and heart, while ignoring and warding off such outbursts will save their sanity and health, then will the deluded victim come to his senses and guard himself to the bitter end against the impending appearance of such emotional manifestations.

Country's Need Is Men.

It has been said that the vigorous country, the one that is going ahead rapidly, is the one that has a greater number of men than women. Men are needed to fight and push the boundaries of civilization farther and farther. When the needed number of men cannot be provided some other country with the necessary excess of males takes up the work and the feminized country drops back to a secondary place.

The greatest suffrage demonstration of all time is now being planned. It will take place in Washington on May 9, and will be in the form of an immense parade. Some of the most important figures in the procession will be Mrs. Juliet Barrett Rublee, grand marshal of the whole parade; Mrs. George Odell of Illinois, chief marshal; Mrs. Apolline M. Blair, leader and trainer of the chorus of a thousand voices that will sing on the capitol steps immediately after the parade, and Mrs. Mary Kealty Claggett and Miss Fola LaFollette, who are organizing the actresses' section.

Spoiled Her Evening.

Madge—"How was it you didn't have a good time at the reception?" Marjorie—"I heard a story about a girl who was there, but she kept within hearing all the time, and I couldn't tell it to anybody."—Life.

Forceful, Anyway.

Mrs. Hoolihan—"This paper says there do be sermons in stones. Phwat d'yez think of that?" O'Hoolihan—"Oh dunno about the sermons, but many a good argument has come out of a brick, O'm thinkin'."

GREAT WEALTH FOR PRINCE OF WALES

Prince of Wales.

When the Prince of Wales reaches the age of twenty-one and comes into full control of the income arising from property and vested moneys that are now being administered in trust for him he will be one of the richest princes in the world. With the exception, perhaps, of the heir to the Russian throne, he will be richer than any other direct heir to any throne in Europe.

GLASSES THAT FIT

When Were Yours Fitted Last?

Every three or four years your eyes should be examined, particularly if you have changed your surroundings, have been ill, etc. Don't forget that improperly fitted lenses are worse than none.

EYE HELPS

Are you nervous? Do you suffer with headaches or dizziness? If the print blurs and runs together when you are reading, if the threading of the needle is more difficult, or if your eyes get red and inflamed, it is a sure sign that eye strain is present and should be corrected, thus saving you no end of suffering and discomfort.

To Take Out Coffee Stains.

The most difficult of all stains to take out are those made by coffee. With care, however, the stain can be removed from the most delicate silk or woolen fabric. Rub the mark gently with a little pure glycerine, then rinse it in lukewarm water, lay a cloth over the damp part on the wrong side, and press with a cool iron until dry. Do not wet more of the material than is absolutely necessary.

Not in Any Sense a Loss.
"Ever lose a surgical case?" "Nope. I thought I was going to lose one once, but it came out all right." "The patient came near dying, eh?" "Oh, he died. But his heirs paid for the operation."

Jealously Guarded Privileges.
Here are two privileges the average man insists upon: First, the right to do as he pleases, and second, the right to abuse a neighbor who doesn't do as he wants him to.

Costly New York Habit.

The costliest of New York habits is that of keeping a supply of subway or L tickets in your pocket. If you have no ticket, you have an even chance of not being stuck for the fare; if you have tickets, you say, as the other man makes for the window: "Come on, I've got tickets." It's a bum game; you simply can't win.—New York Tribune.

BELOIT MEET IS WON BY LEWIS ATHLETES

Lewis Scored 45 Points in Big Track Events—Goelitz Is Individual Star, Piling Up 17 Points. The sturdy athletes from Lewis Institute of Chicago, easily won the eighth annual interscholastic high school track meet at Beloit Saturday, under the auspices of Beloit College, piling up a total of 45 points. Keewatin Academy made a very credible showing and scored 20 points, mainly through the efforts and ability of Goelitz, with a track reputation, who was the individual scorer in the meet with 17 points. But one record was broken, that coming in the hammer throw event, in which Gilto of Milwaukee South Division, dropped the weight exactly 147 feet, 8 1/2 inches away. The previous record was 145 feet, 2 inches. The meet throughout showed the result of exceptional ability upon the part of all the athletes. It took the entire afternoon to run off all the events. In the high jump event, Goelitz was rated as the sure winner, after clearing the bar at five feet one, the bar was raised two inches. In his attempt to make the jump, Goelitz spiked himself in the left calf, which resulted in considerable pain. The tanned athlete stuck to the finish and tied for second, Williams of Milwaukee East Division, clearing five feet, five inches, while Seibert and Goelitz missed this jump.

CAL SAYS THE SOX WILL STAY ON TOP

Jimmy Callahan.

"You can bet we are going to stand the pace," says Jimmy Callahan, manager of the Chicago White Sox, who are leading the way in the American league just now. "We mean to land the bunting this season. I don't want to do any boasting, but you'll have to hunt a mighty long time with a microscope to find a better pitching staff than I have right now."

BIG LEAGUE RACES SHOULD BE RATHER THRILLING THIS SEASON; NO ONE KNOWS JUST WHAT'LL HAPPEN AND FANS ARE AGOG

The many changes in the line-ups of major league teams this season makes pennant prognosticating especially difficult. The fans have managed to change the usual aspect of baseball things quite a bit.

Brief Idleness Recommended. The power of work which makes many a successful man, who must often be placed to the credit, not to his hours of industry, but to that of his hours of idleness in boyhood. Even the hardest worker of us all, it he has to deal with anything above mere details, will do well now and again to let his brain take a holiday, for a space. The next crop of thought will certainly be all the fuller in the ear and the weeds fewer.—T. H. Huxley.

Action Better Than Indecision. Sometimes we must simply do the thing we have to do and think about it afterward. Or it may be better not to think about it afterward. Action is the great solver of doubts, the great key to life's problems. Too much thinking and debating and discussing only confuse the issues.

His Plan. "Some of your constituents are disagreeing with you," said the trusted lieutenant. "Well, keep 'em on them," replied Senator Sorghum. "When enough disagree with me to constitute a reliable majority, I'm going to turn around and agree with them."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Not Playing Fair. Dramatist's Wife (at one of his plays)—"Fritz, your heroine has had eight different frocks already; you don't allow me anything like that during the whole season."—Filegends Blaetter.

Her Parody. A little four-year-old went to Sunday school for the first time and heard the children singing. "Once I was blind, but now I can see." That afternoon her sister heard her sing: "One side was blind, but now it can see."

GOOD START GIVES PIRATES PENNANT HOPES; POOR BEGINNING HAS KEPT THEM FROM WINNING FLAG FOR SEVERAL SEASONS

Fred Clarke, his team and Pittsburgh Pirates fans are all happy, due to the flying start the Pirates have made in the race for the National league pennant. For several seasons past the Pirates have traced their inability to win the flag to their getting a poor start. Now they are at the top of the heap and give promise of putting up an even better article of ball when hot weather comes. Among the Pirates who are giving a good account of themselves this season are Honus Wagner and Babe Adams.

How Money Grows

A certain Senator has defined a gold mine as "A hole in the ground owned by a liar." The remark was made during an investigation into the methods of fly-by-night promoters who are always ready to prey upon the unsophisticated. There is no form of saving so substantial and so satisfying as a bank account. But bank accounts are kept only by people who earn money. A bank account grows only as it is cultivated. Every young lady ought to have a bank account. She ought to earn money enough to enable her to add something to her account every week in the year. The clerk, the factory girl, the office girl, the domestic, seldom has a bank account—the stenographer, the private secretary, the correspondent, almost always has. There is no other occupation open to young ladies which offers such opportunities for independence as does the practice of stenography. Every day we have situations open at good salaries for young lady stenographers, private secretaries, correspondents, etc. We can qualify the average ambitious, sensible, energetic, young lady for a good position in a short time. There are several thousand young ladies in this community who ought to know what we are doing to help women to become self-supporting. Biggest Thing He Could Think Of.
Two employees were discussing what they would buy the boss, whose birthday was approaching. Said Mr. Higgins with enthusiasm: "Wiggins, old boy, we have raised $50, and we want something that will make a show for the money. Something that will look big, you know. Can't you suggest something?" "Sure," replied Mr. Wiggins; "buy $50 worth of rice and boll it."

COLLECTS THE SWEEPINGS

A Pan Which Slides Over the Floor.

The desirable features of the roller sweeper are to be secured in the ordinary broom by the use of an attachment which is shown herewith, the invention of a Santa Barbara inventor, who has just been awarded a patent for the same. This consists of a pan somewhat resembling a dust pan, with an open front and an upturned edge at the lowest part of the opening, the contraption being secured to the broom handle by means of a piece of fabric. This is adjusted so that the pan

DEST-GATHERING ATTACHMENT FOR THE BROOM.

immediately precedes the broom as it passes over the surface being swept, with the result that the sweepings raised by the broom are buried into the interior of the pan. This being open at one end only, through which the dirt and dust has entered, there is no opportunity for the material escaping thereby, so that the sweepings are secured in much the same manner as with the use of the roller sweeper.

Month of March in History.

March, the month of Marthus (Mars), though the third month of our calendar, was the first month of the Roman year. It was considered as the first month of the year in England until the change of style in 1752, and the legal year was reckoned from the 25th of March. Its last days (old style) were once properly supposed to have been borrowed by March from April, and are proverbially storch.

WOMAN'S PAGE

The Evening Chit-Chat
BY RUTH CAMERON

WHEN THE DUMB SPEAK.

VERY now and then some letter friend urges me to say something about cruelty to animals. Hitherto I haven't said much on that subject. 'Not because it isn't very close to my heart but because the duty of being kind to dumb creatures seemed to me so obvious that to say anything about it was superfluous.

But perhaps this duty may be one of the many obligations which we neglect, not because they are deliberately cruel, but simply because we are careless or hardened.

Summer time approaches. And with it the annual tragedy of the poor little house cat turned out to shift for itself while its owners take their summer vacation. Everywhere we see the pathetic creatures eagerly trying to find a morsel of food in the ash can, chased by dogs, skulking about alleyways. What must they think of it all? They who were once petted and fed and loved. Loved? No, I take that back. No one who really loved an animal could ever impose such suffering on it. A mistress who had the least real affection for her cat, if it were not possible for her to take it with her or find it a home, would buy a little chloroform and put the cat gently and painlessly to sleep.

Many people board their cats while they are away. In cat homes. In places where there is no such asylum, I wonder why it would not pay some stay-at-home lady to advertise in the local papers that she would shelter and feed cats during the summer for some such moderate price as fifty cents a week.

I have spoken chiefly about cats because this is the time of year they particularly need to have a word spoken for them, not because they are the chief sufferers from our brutality and carelessness.

Look at patient suffering in all ill-used horses' eyes, the hopeless look of their head, I think touch me more than any of the appeals our dumb creatures make. They say you can tell by the look in a horse's eyes if he is treated or not, and I will believe it. We call these creatures dumb, but they are so far as vocal speech, but the starved alley cat's gaunt look, the pleading eyes, the utter cries to Heaven and to the benevolent man as piercing and unforgettable as any voice that ever spoke, wanted to speak of many other abuses, such as carelessness about water for dogs in summer, and the wicked way in which hens are crowded, crowded so close that they cannot move at all and often without water, I know not how long. Once I asked a market man to turn on the water in the coop for his hens, for his hens, or to let the owner of an abused horse, or put out a dish of water for thirty cents a week, or feed the birds in winter or to work for humane laws, I can't help thinking that "a cup of cold water" and "inasmuch as ye unto the least" applies to God's dumb creatures as well as those who have made more able to look after themselves.

Heart and Home Problems
BY MRS. ELIZABETH HAUSER

Mrs. Thompson: We are of fourteen and fifteen and boys sixteen and sixteen.

Why are girls of our ages too young to go with boys of our ages as well as young men and young women?

(1) Because, my dears, your judgment is not yet as good as it will be when you are older and have more control over yourselves. Young folks lack self-control and are apt to do things in impulse which they would wish undone afterward.

(2) Hardly. Still, he didn't just belong to you, did he? And if he had it was a friend to you, he couldn't have been stolen. So you're better off without him.

(3) Light blue, a delicate pink, and white.

(4) If you are tall, a double tunic would be pretty, otherwise have the skirt just slightly draped. Wear a wide girdle of contrasting color of silk. The vest and collar can be of lace and the sleeves short and finished with lace.

(5) I see no reason why you cannot be good friends.

(6) Your skin should be so fresh and pretty that it would be spoiled by powder. Powder is intended only for women who are getting along in years and whose skin needs to be touched up and freshened.

(7) Act as if you didn't notice him. He'll snout stop.

(8) Why not?

(9) It is disrespectful and bad manners.

(10) No harm in it; but don't be slushy.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: We have been married for two years and have a sweet baby boy nine months old. My husband and I have been very happy and contented and I have been a good, saving wife, and I loved my home and family. But now three weeks ago he joined the lodge and now he is gone every Saturday night until 11 or 12 and sometimes 1 o'clock. I did not want him to join.

WOMEN WHO WORK

The average pay of chorus girls is $450 for the season. Miss Cora Dow of Cincinnati owns twelve drug stores in that city.

For every 1,000 males employed in New Jersey there are 276 females.

Women pursers are now employed on some of the Hudson river boats.

Egypt and Sweden now have women judges.

Copenhagen has 4,095 female municipal employees.

New Jersey canning factories employ over 3,000 women.

Imagine how lonely it is to sit alone so late. Now, Mrs. Thompson, do you think I was right or wrong to fight against it?

A man ought to get out among men for his amusements once in a while, and I do not think once a week is too often. Really, you should urge him to every man JUST FOR HIMSELF.

Be a man, I do not think joining a lodge harms a man, on the contrary, it is good for him, and what is good for him should also be good for his family.

I do not mean that a man should belong to all kinds of lodges and stay away from home every evening in the week, but I do say that one night a week should belong to every man JUST FOR HIMSELF.

Why do you not join a woman's club and have a good time among women once a week? Or make a bargain with your husband to have some one come in and take care of the baby one night a week, while he takes you out somewhere? Also, don't sit up for him when he's out late. Go to bed and sleep well, so that you will feel fresh and good-tempered the next morning. Don't get the nagging habit, dear friend.

Be lovely and cheerful that your husband will always find you the most attractive thing in the world, no matter how well he may like the lodge and his men friends.

WOMEN AS ARMY RECRUITERS IN LONDON

[SPECIAL DELIVERY] London, May 4.—Although Great Britain is not yet ready to give women a voice in the government, the war office authorities are not at all backward in accepting their services in persuading young men to enlist in the regular army.

A novel recruiting campaign was begun today in the London borough of Camberwell in which 300 women and girls of that section are playing leading roles. They are distributing from house to house an attractively printed and illustrated pamphlet drawing attention to the delights of army life. There are 27,000 houses in the borough and before the week is out it is planned to place a copy of the publication in the hands of every man in the place. Besides the women have agreed to do all they can in a personal way to procure enlistments. In order to stimulate the recruiting the war office has arranged for daily parades and drills of various branches of the service in the streets, and the display of the army moving picture film in the local picture palaces.

The Camberwell plan will be followed in other London boroughs and provincial towns of it proves a success there. The war office has been frankly worried of late on account of the remarkable falling off of enlistments in recent months and the increasing number of desertions.

Millionaire's Business Maxims.

The late Philip D. Armour was a great believer in action. Often when his hog buyers were inclined to hold off for a few days for prices to come down, he would exclaim: "The time to buy these hogs is when these hogs are here." At the same time his attitude with his selling agents would be expressed in the following words: "The time to do business is when you see a margin of profit!"

Women Worth While

MRS. JAMES E. MARTINE.

By Selene Armstrong Harmon. In our grandmother's day, when little girls of eight or nine embroidered on their samplers majestic sentiments regarding death, and virtue, and friendship, every woman made of needlework a fine art. Today the woman who can darn a glove neatly, who knows how to put together a machine-made garment, and who does a little embroidery at a summer resort is considered accomplished.

Mrs. James E. Martine, wife of Senator Martine of New Jersey, knows how to sew like her grandmother did. She is probably the best needlewoman in Washington.

Raw women may in their needle chest such a store of exquisite needlework as that in which Mrs. Martine takes pride and pleasure.

"I can recommend needlework," Mrs. Martine has often told her friends, "as a panacea for many of the ills of the nervous, strenuous modern woman. It gives to any woman a wonderful sense of leisure. It rests her mind and her body. Let her pick it up in these moments in which she is inclined to fret over little household worries, and she will find herself rested and diverted in half an hour's time."

Mrs. Martine's New Jersey home was always noted for its generous hospitality, and there, as in Washington, she gave much thought and time to her housekeeping duties. She still prides herself on the fact her garden in Plainfield was one of the best in the town. She was delighted when spending all her time there, to give personal attention and was rewarded always by a wealth of fresh vegetables.

The wife of Senator Martine declares that inasmuch as women pay taxes and are amenable to the same laws that govern men, she thinks they ought to have the vote if they want it. But she always hastens to add that she herself belongs among the old-fashioned women who see no reason for wanting it.

Mrs. Martine is devoted to her husband's interests and follows closely national political issues. When senate debates are in progress she is often among the interested listeners in the gallery.

Household Hint

THINGS WORTH KNOWING. An application of kerosene oil will draw the sting from a burn.

When drawn work wears out, sew a piece of insertion over it and cut the goods away from under.

A small pinch of soda added to potatoes that are boiled with the skins on will keep them from being bitter, as so many are this time of the year.

To keep your garbage can sweet and clean, put a piece of newspaper at the bottom every time it is emptied. This will save time and work.

The extension table is hard to open, pull it out to the full length and rub soap on the slides and it will stick no more. This will help tight windows, too.

THE TABLE. Hominy Croquettes—Into two cups of boiled hominy work a tablespoonful of melted butter; when the cereal is free from all lumps, add to it two beaten eggs, and when these are thoroughly mixed, season the mixture with salt and pepper. Flour your hands, make the paste into small croquettes and set aside until stiff and very cold. Now dip each croquette into beaten egg, roll in cracker crumbs and when all are thoroughly coated set in the ice box for two hours. Fry to a golden brown in deep, boiling fat.

Whipped Cream Pie—Line a pie plate with a rich crust and bake in a hot oven. When cool spread over with a layer of jelly or marmalade. Whip one cupful of thick cream, sweetened with powdered sugar and flavored with vanilla; pour this over the marmalade. Or fill the crust with whipped cream to which has been added one teaspoonful of blanched chopped almonds.

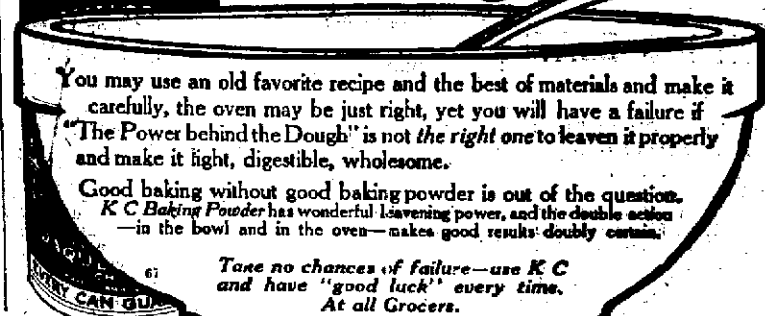

Indian Pudding—Heat a quart of milk to scalding. Into a pint of Indian meal stir a half pound of finely chopped suet and a saltspoonful of salt. Turn this into the scalding milk. Stir all together and remove from the fire. When cold add three well-beaten eggs, a small cupful of molasses and half a teaspoonful of baking soda dissolved in a table-spoonful of boiling water. Dredge a pound of seeded raisins with a cupful of flour and stir in last of all. Bake for three hours. Serve with hard sauce.

Beef à la Mode—Cut two pounds of lean beef from the round into strips. Cover the bottom of a pudding dish with thin strips of bacon, then put in half the meat and spread over this carrots, turnips and onions, sliced very thin. There should be four of these, part of them going over the first layer of beef, the remainder over the second layer of beef. With them go two bay leaves broken into bits. Cover all with stock, make a paste of flour and water, rolling it out as for pie crust, cover the top of the bake dish with this, pinching it down about the edges so that no steam may escape. Bake for two hours in a steady oven, remove the paste cover and send the dish at once to the table.

Beef and Tomato Pie—Cut a pint of cold roast beef into small dice of uniform size and mix with it two or three slices of bacon, also cut small. Line deep dish with good puff paste, put a layer of the beef and bacon in the bottom of the dish, season with pepper and salt, cover with a layer

The Power behind the dough

You may use an old favorite recipe and the best of materials and make it carefully, the oven may be just right, yet you will have a failure if "The Power behind the Dough" is not the right one to leaven it properly and make it light, digestible, wholesome.

Good baking without good baking powder is out of the question. K.C. Baking Powder has wonderful leavening power, and the double action—in the bowl and in the oven—makes good results doubly certain.

Take no chances of failure—use K.C. and have "good luck" every time. At all Grocers.

of peeled and sliced tomatoes. Sprinkle with salt and pepper and dots of butter rolled in flour; add more meat and more tomatoes until the dish is full. Cover the top layer with bits of butter, then with a crust of puff paste, making holes in this for the escape of the steam. Bake until brown.

Bangor Pudding—One and one-half cups of cracker crumbs, boiling water, two cups of milk, one-third cup of molasses, one egg, one cup of raisins. Moisten the cracker crumbs with boiling water, and let stand until cool. Add the milk, molasses, egg slightly beaten, and the raisins seeded and cut in pieces. Turn into a buttered pudding mould, and steam eight hours. Let stand in the mould to cool. Serve cold with cream sauce.

But He Didn't Mean Quite That. The Curate—Now, my dear children, I want you all to join me in singing that beautiful hymn, which I hope and trust we will sing together in the great beyond, "Heav'ly Grief and Pain."—Sydney Bulletin.

Having a Real Good Time. Fond Father—"Tommy writes us a feeling letter from boarding school." Doting Mother—"And what does the poor darling say?" Fond Father—"He says he's been whipped so often he can tell what kind of wood the teacher's switch is made of by the feel."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

Here Is Good News for Stomach Victims

Some very remarkable results are being obtained by treating stomach, liver and intestinal troubles with pure vegetable oils, which exert a cleansing, soothing and purifying action upon the lower bowels, removing the obstructions of poisonous fecal matter and gases and preventing their absorption by the blood. This done, the food is allowed free passage from the stomach, fermentation ceases and stomach troubles quickly disappear.

George H. Mayr, for twenty years a leading Chicago druggist, cured himself and many of his friends of stomach, liver and intestinal troubles of years' standing by this treatment, and so successful was the remedy he devised that it has since been placed in the hands of druggists all over the country, who have sold thousands of bottles.

Though absolutely harmless, the effect of the medicine is sufficient to convince any one of its remarkable effectiveness, and within 24 hours the sufferer feels like a new person. Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy is now sold here by J. P. Baker & Son.

Here Is Good News for Stomach Victims

Some very remarkable results are being obtained by treating stomach, liver and intestinal troubles with pure vegetable oils, which exert a cleansing, soothing and purifying action upon the lower bowels, removing the obstructions of poisonous fecal matter and gases and preventing their absorption by the blood. This done, the food is allowed free passage from the stomach, fermentation ceases and stomach troubles quickly disappear.

George H. Mayr, for twenty years a leading Chicago druggist, cured himself and many of his friends of stomach, liver and intestinal troubles of years' standing by this treatment, and so successful was the remedy he devised that it has since been placed in the hands of druggists all over the country, who have sold thousands of bottles.

Though absolutely harmless, the effect of the medicine is sufficient to convince any one of its remarkable effectiveness, and within 24 hours the sufferer feels like a new person. Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy is now sold here by J. P. Baker & Son.
